Class Descriptions and Instructors

Enroll your child in Brecksville Theater in the Square's fun-filled two-week summer theater camp! Each student will take classes in music, dance, acting and theater skills. They'll learn the basics of what it means to be a performer, and they'll show it all to you in a showcase performance on the stage of Brecksville's historic Old Town Hall.

BTOTS is committed to providing an exceptional education experience to every student. Our professional instructors have many, many years of experience, and they're excited to bring their knowledge to our camp. Truly a unique program, BTOTS summer theater camp is the ultimate crash course in all things theatrical!

Come be a little star this summer! Learn to listen, move, sing and dance on a big stage! You'll do crafts, learn music, and show your parents all you've done in a final performance at the Old Town Hall.

CLASS MATERIAL: 101 DALMATIANS

Instructor: Carli Miluk

Carli's performance credits include Great Lakes Theater Festival, Cleveland Shakespeare Festival, Fourth Wall Productions, Morrison Dance, Meg Louise Dance and the Magic Mike Productions magic shows. Her international credits include a European tour for Armed Forces Entertainment as the host of a puppet show with Natural Bridges Puppet Production Company. Carli has worked as a guest artist with Cleveland Public Theater, Solon Center for the Arts, Jeté Dance Centre and Brecksville Theater on the Square. She graduated from Baldwin-Wallace College with a BA in Dance and Theater.

Instructor: Erin DiLauro

Erin graduated from Ashland University with a B.A. in Musical Theatre. Erin teaches acting, dance, and musical theatre classes all over NE Ohio. In addition to starting her own "Triple Threat Training" program, she directs children and teen theatre productions, and is a performer. Her most recent shows include choreographing "Alice in Wonderland, Jr." at Brecksville-Broadview Heights Middle School and directing "Winnie the Pooh Christmas Tail" at Cassidy Theatre.

(grades 5-6 classes are held separately from grades 7-12)

ALL CLASSES WILL PERFORM MUSIC FROM HAIRSPRAY AND HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL

Camp Director: Meri Sikora

Meri has a Bachelor's degree in Theatre Performance. Originally from Richmond, Virginia, she has performed with professional theatre companies in Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio. Meri has been teaching dance, acting, and improv for over ten years: she loves watching people of all ages develop a love for theatre. Locally, she has taught at Suburban Montessori, BTOTS, and Weathervane Playhouse. She is also the asst. director of Blast! at Cuyahoga Valley Church in Broadview Hts.

Content: Dance

Be introduced to movement through dance-based theater games and improvisation. Work on coordination, rhythm and style - with energy and stage presence stressed. Students will be instructed in a variety of dance techniques and will perform their numbers in the final showcase.

Instructor: Shawna McPherson

Shawna is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of University of Akron, with a BA in Early Childhood Education and a minor in Dance Performance in May 2008. Shawna is accomplished in jazz, tap, ballet and pointe, a dance instructor at Dance by Gloria in Broadview Heights, assistant teacher at The Goddard School and is co-choreographer for BBHS show choir Music in Motion. She trained at Dance by Gloria, studied in New York City at The Broadway Dance Center, American Tap Dance Association, Camp Broadway - CAP 21, Tap City and Traditions in Tap, receiving a certificate of recognition from Dance Teacher Magazine. She appeared at the 42nd Street Studios in NYC in a tap showcase and was a featured performer in The Eastern Michigan University Repertoire.

Content: Acting

Learn how to unleash your inner actor! You'll be instructed in acting techniques, audition preparation, stage directions and storytelling. Older students will also learn to develop their improvisation skills.

Instructor: Dusten Welch

Dusten Welch received his Bachelor of Arts in Theater at Ashland University in 2007. He soon joined Great Lakes Theater Festival as an Actor Teacher in their education program. He's acted with GLTF in their Outreach Tour The Dark Side of Twilight, and understudied in their A Midsummer Night's Dream. In Cleveland Shakespeare Festival's Antony and Cleopatra he acted as Octavius Caesar, and in their Hamlet as Hamlet. Dusten also directed CSF's production of William Shakespeare's Land of the Dead. Currently he also instructs at Solon Center for the Arts and tours with the comedy sword-fighting show The Dueling Fools.

Content: Voice

Come learn proper voice training including breath control, basic techniques for vocal development and listening. You will also learn to understand notes and rhythms while singing musical theater numbers. The songs you learn will be performed as part of the final showcase.

Instructor: Emily Ortolano

Emily is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College where she holds a degree in piano with a minor in voice. She owns and operates a private piano and voice studio in Parma, as well as being the Director for the Rocky River Community Chorus. She has served as the Assistant Music Director for The Singing Angels. Emily has performed in various venues, including The Allen Theater, Erie's Warner Theater, Pittsburgh's Heinz Hall, Hollywood's Grauman's Theater, and The Crystal Cathedral. She has also been heard and seen on multiple radio and television stations throughout the country. She has accompanied and music directed many shows, including Broadway Moments, Applause, and Big River at Cassidy Theater, and Cabaret at John Carroll University. Emily has also served as the Musical Director for Holy Name High School's Summer Theater Program, as well as Aurora Community Theater's summer children's theater program.

Content: Theatre Skills

A brand new class! This will be a series of mini workshops in various topics. Subjects include Magic, Stage Combat, Scene Painting, Puppet Making and Stage Makeup. Come learn everything you need to know to help you become a well rounded performer, and have a great time doing it!

Instructor: This class will be taught by a variety of theater professionals who are experts in these areas.
